34 Lincoln shut down 14 newspaper stations during the Civil War

35 Lincoln's emancipation proclamation had no plans for freed black slaves, no housing, food, clothing, employment, or healthcare. I'm sure many people sided with the South knowing Lincoln had no plan

42 nearly all southern blacks supported the south during the Civil War

43 slaves were almost never separated from their families

57 it was either enslave or kill each other since both sides wanted to conquer the land

62 Africa was by far the dominant in slave trade in the world

77 in the 19th century in Zambia slaves made up 33 percent of the population

80 all peoples in Central Africa played a role in supporting the European slave trade

86 in 1850, 17 million Africans were slave owners, and 83 million Africans were slaves

87 all Africans were both by whites by Africans, none were hunted down and gathered

93-94 repeated

105-106 Africans first started to enslave themselves

137 Prophet Muhammad enacted laws where slaves were to be treated humanely, the Quraysh hated him for this since the tribes of Arabia's finances were dependent on this.

185 without slavery New England would have collapsed

192 Harvard University founded "n word ology" which held that blacks were a subhuman species that forms a bridge between man and apes. Please read the book so you know I'm not making this up.

213 many of today's wealthy New York Jewish families are descendants of slave owners

229 slave whipping was rare and strongly discouraged and banned in many areas

231 Native Americans practiced slavery for thousands of years prior to Christopher Columbus coming

237 slavery became unprofitable in the North, that’s probably why they got rid of it no ethical reasoning behind it

243 1 out of 4 free blacks were black slave owners

248 one of the reasons why so many Native Americans supported the south was that the South was going to enact laws that runaway slaves would be returned to their slave owners

270 many blacks preferred being enslaved

273 less than five percent of whites in the South owned slaves, most of these slaveowners owned less than five

290 slaves walked freely around town

294 a slave wedding was like any other wedding during this time and both blacks and whites were welcome to go. Of all the facts this upsets me the most that US history books hide this.

295 slaves could marry anyone they wanted as long as they were of the same race

301 Louisiana banned the ability to break up slave families, this practice was highly discouraged in the South

305 the average slaved earned $48 a year ($1,300 in today’s currency), a slave that was dedicated could earn from $60 to $300 a year

318 Southern black slaves worked from sunrise to early afternoon eight hours five days a week with one or three hours off for lunch ranging from 25 to 40 hours worked a week. Free laboring whites worked 70 to 75 hours a week. This is the opposite of what the movies claim.

370 slave homes were in neat rows

374 there were thousands of freed black slave owners that were wealthy

407 Mormons believe blacks are an “inferior race” in the “next world”

427 the Industrial Revolution made slavery unprofitable, this is why the world gave up on slavery not for ethical reasons

441 the Underground Railroad only took 2,000 slaves out of 4.5 million. It was no secret to people, there were no “hidden tunnels”

444 12.5% of blacks in the South were free

477 Confederate President Jefferson Davis said whipping was the least frequent in the South in the whole world and called it “sadistic”

515 “we did not fight the South in order to abolish slavery” Lincoln

521 Jefferson Davis said the South fought for self-government while the North fought for national dominance

523 the 4.8% of slave owners in the South owners knew slavery would go extinct it was just a matter of time

528 North General Ulysses S. Grant said “I would resign my commission and carry my sword to the other side” if the North was fighting to end slavery.

529 Woodrow Wilson concluded the Civil War was fought over money and power not slavery

612 the South knew slavery could not be abolished overnight, they knew it would cost 57 billion in today’s dollars to house and employ all the slaves

623-624 Uncle Tom’s Cabin was a biased version of history with unreliable sources

672 Abraham Lincoln used the n word, and had it so blacks could not attend his funeral

689 Lincoln admitted there was not one slave rebellion in the South

704 Lincoln considered allowing the South to have slavery so long as they joined the Union and paid their taxes

716 Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address was seen as a failure

724 Lincoln had possess of being a Freemason

811 the North turned away black recruits who wanted to join for the first two years

819 freed slaves from the South were beaten, whipped, and sometimes murdered if they did not want to fight for the North